Same Difference

In his memoir Recollections of a Sussex Parson Edward Boys Ellman writing in 1906 draws on over sixty years as vicar of the village of Berwick East Sussex. It is half that period, precisely thirty years since my association with Rusper began, so it feels timely to revisit the Recollections. I first read Ellman's pithy fifty-nine chapters when in my teens and remain always struck by the contrasts and similarities in rural ministry today more than a hundred years after his death.

Ellman has an interest in social trends and an eye for detail and it is amusing to read for example on the subject of changing fashions that when he was writing only older men sported the 'traditional' pigtails!

At a personal level I feel a sense of connection with him reinforced by growing up in the same town of Lewes as he did and knowing the same outlying villages. While his father was called up from the militia formed during the Napoleonic Wars, mine served in WW2 and later in Aden. By curious coincidence both my mother and his hailed from the same area of East Kent.

Two World Wars, social upheaval, and an ongoing media revolution later, one priest remaining in a single village for decades may seem an anomaly. In a pluralist society the Church of England is considered by many to be an anachronism. How relevant can Ellman be for us today?

The Church of England seemed to be in general as an all-time spiritual low in the early 1800s and the book's chapter devoted to 'Careless Clergy' reflects this. In a Lenten anecdote we are told how Edward Raynes, Archdeacon of Lewes 'gave a dinner party on Ash Wednesday, quite forgetting the day and when he did recollect it he merely ordered pancakes as an extra dish.'

In contrast it has been good to see the manifold increase in devotion and numbers observing the beginning of Lent in recent years since we began having the Ash Wednesday service with imposition of ashes for those who wish at Durrants.

Nick is here to minister to all who have need in our parish. He is keen to be told if someone has moved in and to have an opportunity to visit newcomers. Holy Communion can be arranged for the housebound or those who are sick. Nick tries to take Friday as a rest day each week, so he kindly suggests that in the event of an emergency you please contact the churchwardens in the first instance.

RUSPER CHRONICLE

Our next meeting will be on Tuesday 14th February 7-9pm in Rusper Village Hall when we shall finally track down our dinosaurs. Yes we did have dinosaurs! That does feel strange – but very interesting. It is also St Valentine's Day – so romantic memories please. And we need to know what YOU would like us to look at in the coming year. Everyone is welcome – it is a very friendly informal group, so do come and join us.

A MESSAGE FROM CAGNE

CAGNE is your aviation community and environment organisation and is in need of a Rusper committee member! CAGNE is always pleased to welcome new committee members from Sussex, Surrey and Kent, to help our committee with the ever increasing workload - from administration roles to planning, infrastructure and airspace. If you can offer some time and would like to be actively involved, please email cagnetatwick@gmail.com. We will also be looking for a new President this year as our long standing president retires in February. Find out more at www.cagne.org

NOVEMBER CHRISTMAS MARKET

With the pressing need for funds towards the restoration of the north aisle at St Mary Magdalene we held a special Christmas Market in church on 20th November. The congregation was joined by Rusper and beyond to buy some early Christmas gifts, both homemade and gorgeous “good as new” gifts.

We are most grateful to all those who came to buy to make the whole event very jolly and also to all those who kindly donated. 🎁

A VERY HARPY CHRISTMAS CONCERT

Something entirely new for lucky Rusper residents and beyond. A Christmas concert with a difference. We were excited to welcome not only the renowned harpist Luisa-Marie Cordell, but also the National Youth Harp Orchestra, to our church. The setting could not have been more perfect, our church decked for Christmas, candles glowing and the shimmering bell-like Christmas melodies of an orchestra of harps echoing around us.

Popular award-winning harpist Luisa-Marie Cordell has travelled the world performing, teaching and playing for leading orchestras and performing as a soloist recitalist for European recital series.

Unique in Europe, the National Youth Harp Orchestra has fifty of the most talented harpists from across the UK and performs regularly at prestigious events and concert venues across the UK including The Barbican and Cadogan Hall.

Luisa-Marie and her students certainly brought a touch of Christmas magic to Rusper and our thanks go to everyone that supported us that night.

SAVE WEST OF IFIELD CAMPAIGN

You may already be aware that Horsham Council has delayed publication of its Local Plan until after the May election. More detail here:

<https://www.sussexexpress.co.uk/news/politics/third-conservative-council-leader-quits-at-horsham-district-council-within-last-20-months-3981361>

As a campaign group we welcome this delay because we think more time is needed to consider the potential benefits of Michael Gove's recent statements around modifying house building targets. His proposals are currently the subject of public consultation - see link below. We do understand however that the Plan's delay could open the door to speculative planning applications from developers, but without more information it's impossible for us to form a view on how serious this threat is and on the likelihood of a six month delay making a material difference, particularly given the constraints imposed by water neutrality.

Also on the plus side, given the inadequate consultation so far, this delay presents a real opportunity to ensure that residents fully understand the scale and potential impact of a new 10,000 house development between Crawley and Horsham.

Horsham Council's May elections also provide an opportunity to elect a council that most represents the views of residents. Save West of Ifield is planning a Public Meeting in Rusper village hall which will give you the opportunity to hear key candidates' views on the Local Plan and the West of Ifield proposal in particular. Details on date, panellists, etc. to follow. Please keep an eye on our website for updates:

With many thanks, Fenella

HOPE KEITH TRUST

Hi there,

I hope you're going into the new year feeling positive and happy. The beginning of a new year can be tough going especially when it's grey and wet, so there's no shame if you're finding things a bit of a slog at the moment. Christmas isn't a great time for everyone and the post-Christmas period can feel very flat.

It's one thing to feel a bit down now and then, but if it's really affecting your life I'd urge you to reach out to try and seek some support. Anyone who is feeling anxious, lonely or depressed could talk to their GP or access one of the other support services available. You matter, there is help out there and the first step towards feeling better is often just having a conversation.

Accessing support

- Talk to someone. Tell a friend, family member or someone you trust how you are feeling.
- Speak to your GP. If you need support out of hours call NHS 111.
- Call the Sussex Mental Health Line on 0800 0309 500.
- Text Shout if you prefer to talk to someone over text message, Shout offer confidential support 24/7. Text: SHOUT to 85258.
- Join Mind's online community Side by Side, it's an online space where you can listen, share and be heard.
Visit sidebyside.mind.org.uk
- Call the Samaritans on 116 123. They are there 24 hours a day, 365 days a year.
- Visit the e-wellbeing hub for more contacts
<https://e-wellbeingadults.co.uk/services>

- Call the Silver Line which is a free 24 hour telephone service for older people offering friendship, conversation and support 0800 470 80 90
- For adult social care support and if you have concerns about your own safety or someone you know, contact Adult Social Care at West Sussex County Council on 01243 642121 or email socialcare@westsussex.gov.uk.

Older people can also contact Age UK WSBH directly by phone - 0800 019 1310 or email info@ageukwsbh.org.uk. If it's just a change of scene and a bit of company you're after, why not join us at The Star Coffee morning this month? The next one is on Tuesday February 14th at 11am at the Star Inn, Rusper. We are a friendly bunch and really welcoming.

I hope 2023 sees you prioritising your own wellbeing and feeling all the better for it.

Best wishes, Gaby Aldrich (Village Agent, Rusper/Colgate, Age UK West Sussex Brighton and Hove)
