Nick writes.... For some years I have collaborated with Simon Allaby by contributing my own cartoon illustrations to accompany his seasonal booklets of anecdotes with a message. His most recent offering is a countdown to Christmas, and this is just one of his stories:

Stuffed with What?

In a famous episode of the BBC sitcom the Vicar of Dibley, local vicar Geraldine Granger is invited to four Christmas lunches. In order not to upset anyone she accepts them all. At the second enormous meal she is challenged to a sprout eating contest with her hosts and is reduced to forcing the last sprout into her mouth with her fingers. By the end of the day, she is so full that she has to be taken home in the bucket of the local farmer's tractor!

In a season characterised by over-indulgence it's worth taking a moment to consider what we will be full of by the end of the day, and what our lives will be full of when our Christmas dinners are digested and long forgotten.

In the opening of his Gospel the apostle John makes this observation about the life of Jesus, "We have seen his glory, the glory of the One and Only, who came from the Father, full of grace and truth." The Son of God whose birth we celebrate today lived a life that revealed the heart of God; a God of grace and mercy, who loves us so much that He gave us His Son, so that we might have life and have it to the full.

Happy Christmas and a blessed New Year!

Nick

NEWDIGATE BOWLS CLUB

Ever fancied trying Bowls as a pastime? Or if you've bowled in the past, why not start playing again? Bowls is one of the few outdoor sports that men and women can play together and compete as equals. It is a great activity that naturally promotes both physical and mental health. Contrary to popular perception, Bowls is an all age sport, but is particularly suited to those transitioning from full-time work or who have taken early retirement.

Your local club is the Newdigate Bowls Club. We are a friendly village club, always keen to encourage new members to join in and play the sport of bowls. We are a mixed club with both playing and social members. The playing season runs from mid-April till late-September. Whether you're a beginner or experienced, come and join in our popular weekly 'Club Night' every Tuesday evening from 6pm throughout the season.

The club will be hosting Open Days in March 2024, which will include free coaching and an introduction to the facilities. Details will be in the January edition of this magazine. So, if you're curious about the sport, looking for either the competitive aspect or the social version with gentle exercise, please get in touch!

Fees for the 2024 season:

£120 - Full playing membership (existing members)

£60 – New members fee

£30 - Social Membership (non-playing)

Free - Junior Playing Membership (under 18 years)

For all enquiries, please contact the Club Secretary Diana Banthorpe on 07769 561086

RUSPER ART GROUP ANNUAL EXHIBITION

We moved to Rusper three and a half years ago and, since then, have spent much of our time and energy renovating our cottage and creating a garden. Then, all of a sudden, there was no more building work and no more decorating to do, so joining the Rusper Art Group, which I had thought about doing for some time, was possible!

So, four weeks ago, carrying my very old school box of paints and a new pad of water colour paper, I bravely entered the village hall where the Rusper Art Group had been meeting for many, many years. To my relief I found everyone very laid back, relaxed and very friendly and welcoming.

A huge variety of skills are displayed by the participants: pastel work, lino printing, acrylics, oils, water colour, collage, mixed media...large and small, abstract and figurative. I soon discovered that the group was preparing for the annual exhibition of their work ... which was due to take place during the last weekend of October.

A great deal of preparation and organisation is needed for the task of displaying everyone's work in the village hall and for a couple of days prior to the show there is a burst of activity making the hall resemble a beehive! In addition to showing their work, some members of the group offer a variety of beautiful cards that they have produced. But their creativity does not stop there; they also bake all sort of cakes each more delicious than the other in order to tempt visitors to the refreshment area. On the last day, the show ends with a raffle organised by the group which offers attractive prizes, all donated by the group members.

This year the profits generated by the exhibition were shared 50/50 between the Church Appeal Fund and Rusper Village Hall, each receiving £ 460.00. This was good but, as always, we would have liked to have done more. So, to all of you who came to the exhibition and contributed to its success, I say on behalf of the group a big thank you for your support, and to those who did not make it, please do come next time and feel part of the community spirit. We need your encouragement and value your support.

RUSPER CHRONICLE

REMEMBRANCE

Thirty two years ago a little red book arrived in Rusper – nothing to do with the Chinese version, but “The Men who Marched Away”, a book about the men on our Rusper War Memorial.

In her introduction Eve Seaward wrote: “It was during the three-minute silence in 1989 that I looked at the names carved into the Rusper Memorial and wondered how many of the younger generation in our village today had even heard of them, let alone knew anything about the men they represented or the families from which they came. Yet these families were part of our village life; they came from the butcher’s shop, the coal merchant, from farms and other local places, they were known at Rusper School, they were blessed at the font, married at the altar, and if they did not 'die in a foreign field' they were buried in the churchyard." Eve herself was remembering her first husband, John Rappaport, who was killed in 1943, less than a year after they were married and before their son was born.

And so began our continuing interest in finding out more about these men, helped nowadays by sites like Ancestry and intensive research by Jean Wood and others.

But then what about those who marched away – and came back? A Welcome Home Party was organised in 1945 at Normans – which must have been very sad for Lady de la Rue whose youngest son, Victor St George, did not return from the war in Burma. We need to know about them too, so now we have a scroll of names from WW1 of men who returned to the village, and we need to do the same for WW11. For some like Joe Jupp jnr the war gave them new wider opportunities or training in new skills. And those who stayed in the village? We had a Home Guard platoon. It would be good to learn more about that so please get in touch if you have any information.

All these thoughts occupied our November Rusper Chronicle meeting with many contributions from those present. At the end one can't help thinking that for such a small village Rusper's contribution to two World Wars was something for which to be proud.

NEXT MEETING: 12TH DECEMBER 7-9 pm small hall, Rusper Village Hall. Our meetings are very user-friendly with no long boring talks! So do join us and help to unravel the history of Rusper. PLEASE NOTE: There will be no meeting in January 2024.

SAVE WEST OF IFIELD CAMPAIGN

Members of Save West of Ifield met Jeremy Quin MP at his Rusper surgery on 27th October. We were pleased that he gave us an hour of his time to explain our concerns about over-development in Horsham District, and in particular the proposal for 3,000 new houses in the parish, and the possibility of a further 7,000 houses and a by-pass. Although he didn't feel able to offer us his support, we will continue to lobby him in the hope that his recent resignation from his ministerial role will free him to focus on his constituents.

We also met John Milne and Sam Raby – Horsham Cabinet members – with planning officials, to discuss our more technical objections to the West of Ifield proposals. We covered a number of topics, but everyone agreed that Homes England's proposals for transport and traffic are key concerns. We took the opportunity to counter HDC's belief that 'everyone wants a Full Western Relief Road' (by-pass), and that taking more housing is the way to deliver it.

HDC intend to discuss the new draft Local Plan at back-to-back Cabinet and Council meetings on 11th December. We intend to rally outside the council offices (Parkside) on the 11th – please join us and see Facebook or email us for more details. We expect the new Plan to be published on 4th December or possibly just before. The Regulation 19 consultation period will run during January and February and this is EVERYONE's opportunity to let the Planning Inspector know your views. Again – see our Facebook and emails for more information nearer the time.

You may have noticed that Homes England submitted an Environmental Impact Assessment Scoping Opinion Request to HDC – see HDC planning portal, reference EIA/23/0007. Although strictly speaking this was not a public consultation, nonetheless we submitted a detailed response in respect of habitat and biodiversity where we identified many errors, omissions and inconsistencies. Our response is on the HDC planning portal, and our website.

The next Quiz at the Plough (Rusper) is on Tuesday 5th December at 8pm. <https://www.savewestofifield.co.uk/>
