

GATWICK AIRPORT
DETAILED MOVEMENT and NIGHT PERIOD ANALYSIS BY AIRLINE OPERATOR
APRIL 2024

Appended below is my regular monthly report summarising details of the daily movements at Gatwick together with details of actual night period movements by airline for the month of April 2024. These are based on official Eurocontrol sources as downloaded and recorded each day online on The Original Gatwick Spotters List.

We are now into the first month of the 'Summer Season' and there has been the inevitable increase in the aggregate number of movements which follows through into a similar significant increase in Night Flights. We compare the various figures both to the previous year and also to 2019, the pre-Covid year.

The average daily movements during April 2024 was 733 (March was 645). The equivalent in April 2019 was 800 per day – hence Gatwick is still showing only a 91% recovery against pre-pandemic levels (although this is a slight increase against the equivalent recovery level in March which was 88%).

As to Night Movements, full details are, as always, provided and also still show that, taking into account the reduction in overall numbers, there is still a disproportionate increase in the level of night movements in comparison with pre-pandemic levels. One would highlight the increase in early morning departures and particularly in the 0500-0559 period (which is up by 88% in comparison with 2019).

It is hoped that these analyses will assist in making informed representations in regard to the current regulatory consultations and committees.

Overall Summary of Movements.

Appendix 1 shows the numbers of movements each week since June 2021 and shows this month's movements had increased to an average of 733 per day; up from March's figure of 645 per day but still 9% below the level of pre-pandemic movements.

Appendix 2 shows a daily movement count for each airline. While EasyJet has continued its upward trend (as in Summer 2023) back to operating almost 50% of all flights from Gatwick, several other short-haul airlines have reduced capacity. Notably, Aer Lingus, which was operating 4 to 5 flights a day, has now ceased all Gatwick operations. Ryanair have also recorded less flights to Gatwick in the month in comparison with March and the Greek carrier, Aegean, which in March had 3 to 4 services a week has also now disappeared. Jet2, which uses Gatwick predominantly in the Winter Period in support of its package holidays has also now virtually ceased its Gatwick flights.

One other downsizing apparent is with Lufthansa, which commenced Gatwick services in April 2023 and increased them to 2 a day in September, predominantly with A.320s, are now regularly using the smaller A.319 and the CRJ aircraft on the services.

On the other hand, there are a few new or returned airlines and some service increases in the month. Notably, Delta Airlines returned mid-month with a daily Boeing 767 service and the Canadian WestJet also returned at the end of the month but only with a single service and a long-range Boeing 737 (last year it operated Boeing 787 Dreamliners). Swissair, which had been operating weekend services only (presumably for skiers) now has a daily service, commonly being flown by its associate Helvetic Airways using a mid-sized Embraer. Equally, on short-haul services, Tunisair has increased its 2 flights a week to 5 and the Turkish Sun Express increased their services from 4 a week to an average of 2 per day.

On long-haul, the only other material changes are that Gatwick is now getting a daily Nigerian service from Air Peace, using some fairly ancient Boeing 777s (and more commonly chartering in a Norse Boeing 787) and two more former Soviet state airlines have also arrived on a once a week basis – Turkmenistan Airlines and Uzbekistan Airways – joining Azerbaijan Airlines which is now arriving three times a week.

Analysis of Night Period Flights

Appendix 3 below provides details of all movements by airline and time during the Night Period from 2300 to 0659; including the 'core' period of 2330 to 0600 where the numbers of movements are, at least in theory, subject to regulatory capping (there remains controversy as to a number of mechanisms which allow flights in excess of the cap).

In the period from 2300 to 0659; the hourly figures (half-hourly for 2300 and wef 0500) were as follows for April (March 2024 in brackets):

	Landings	Take-offs
2300-2329	400 (206)	21 (11)
2330-2359	217 (129)	8 (4)
0000-0059	210 (143)	7 (1)
0100-0159	171 (49)	4 (1)
0200-0259	88 (15)	1 (0)
0300-0359	27 (15)	2 (1)
0400-0459	37 (20)	1 (0)
0500-0529	7 (22)	34 (2)
0530-0559	3 (61)	263 (44)
0600-0629	104 (86)	405 (267)
0630-0659	188 (119)	454 (315)

Night period traffic substantially increased in the month with arrivals during the Night Period aggregating 1452 landings (as against 865 in March) – an average of 48.4 per night, an increase of nearly 75% in comparison with the average of 27.9 per night in March. Departures totalled 1200 (March - 639) an average of 40 per night virtually double the March average of 20.6 per night in March. As the above table illustrates, these increases continue to be predominately late night arrivals and early morning departures. Significantly is the substantial increase in arrivals during the 'small hours' and departures in the 0500 to 0559 period – both in the 'core' night period which is currently subject to a DfT review.

Comparisons with 2019 (pre-Covid)

Appendices 4 and 5 set out the equivalent data for Gatwick movements pre-pandemic so one can compare both the extent to which Gatwick has recovered and also to note what has materially changed to assist in considering the possible future traffic movements. While there have been, as previously related, some significant operator changes between 2019 and today, the overall mix is not dissimilar with still a heavy concentration on short-haul European flights.

First, looking at total movements for equivalent weeks, we see this for April (2019/2024):

Week One: 5538/5186 Week Two: 5661/5160 Week Three: 5633/5101 Week Four: 5571/5080

The overall traffic recovery levels (apart from week one – Easter) were thus fairly consistent at 94%; 91%; 90% and 91% in comparison with the equivalent pre-pandemic period, with an overall figure this month of 91%.

In regard to Night Movements, we compare the current month with the equivalent in 2019 and in 2023.

April:	Landings			Take-offs
	2019	2023	2024	2019	2023	2024
2300-2329	320	352	400	51	17	21
2330-2359	239	305	217	20	11	8
0000-0059	228	342	210	11	9	7
0100-0159	223	254	171	2	6	4
0200-0259	45	145	88	0	2	1
0300-0359	45	46	27	0	0	2
0400-0459	18	31	37	0	0	1
0500-0529	15	10	7	5	11	34
0530-0559	17	48	3	132	135	263
0600-0629	147	102	104	363	331	405
0630-0659	157	107	188	496	388	454
Totals	1454	1742	1452	1080	910	1200
Core Night	830	1181	760	170	174	320

This comparison shows that the number of night arrivals in 2024 were broadly in line with the 2019 figure (although of course total movements were still only 91%) and illustrates that the 2023 figures were perhaps a blip due to external reasons. However, the level of departures was 11 % higher than the 2019 figures and 88% higher during the core period - again primarily related to very early morning departures, predominantly by EasyJet.

The Night Flight regime is currently under review by the DfT although its Consultation document favours ‘kicking the can down the road’ pending both an analysis of ongoing recovery trends as well as consideration of reports on the health impact of sleep disturbance caused by night noise. This Report may assist consultees but representations need to be in mid-month.
